

BobTrap House Concert

Clinton Collins with Greg Trafidlo

Sunday, October 15, 2017 3-5 PM

Bob & Denise Schmucker are pleased and proud to announce that Clinton Collins will be coming to BobTrap National Park and Performing Arts Center (aka, my house) on Sunday, October 15th from 3-5 PM. Opening the show for Clinton will be Greg Trafidlo. Our address is 1842 Pembroke Drive in Vinton, VA 24179.

I first met Clinton several years ago at a house concert and have seen him and his daughter Nicole perform several times since then. From the 1st time I saw him, I fell in love with his unique West Virginia flavored blend of folk, Americana bluegrass and bluesy gospel. He's got a wall full of awards for performing and songwriting and has appeared on the nationally syndicated show Song of the Mountains, but you'd be hard-pressed to find a more humble and down to earth guy. His musical journey guides us through places and to people that seem familiar and stories that resonate with us all. From the rural back roads to the places of the heart; melodies are filled with humor and observations about relationships, faith and everyday living. Check him out at <http://www.clintoncollins.com/index/>.

Folkie legend and good friend Greg Trafidlo will be opening and has shared the stage with many of the greats, including Tom Paxton, Bill Monroe, John Prine, Emmylou Harris, Kathy Mattea, and many, many more. He's performed on stage at the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, and his songs have been featured all over the world. His new CD "The Crawlspace Tapes" is getting a lot of national airplay. We're thrilled to have Greg join us again at BobTrap! Check him out at <http://www.gregtrafidlo.com/>.

The suggested donation is $15 per person or $25 per couple. All donations go 100% to the performers. The show will include a pot-luck style dinner (finger foods and snacks). Water, soft drinks and ice will be provided (BYOB for adult beverages). A song circle is planned for after the show for those who are interested.

We've planned this as an outdoor event, but will bring it inside if the weather isn't good. Parking will be on the street. I live in a residential area, so please respect my neighbors by not blocking access to their driveways. Seating is limited to about 40, so please RSVP no later than October 10th.
